LET'S FACE THE FACTS IN FAIRNESS TO KENNEDY

Eisenhower left a mess for Kennedy. For eight years he played golf and entertained world celebrities while Khrushchev and Castro built up Western headquarters for Communism in Cuba.

Time again Khrushchev and Castro boldly said what they were doing. Surely the Communist infiltrated Central Intelligence Agency reported to Ike, but he kept at his golf.

British Field Marshall Alanbrooke said he did the same in Europe. Alanbrooke wrote that in November 1944 there was no one running the land battle in Europe.

He stated:

"Eisenhower, though supposed to be doing so, was on the golf links at Rheims, (France) taking practically no part in running the war".

Alanbrooke said that British Major General John Whitely and U.S. Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, and others, went to Eisenhower and demanded he take interest in the war.

Ike was used as a stooge to purge the Republican party of good patriots. He helped destroy Sen. McCarthy — this while Communism moved ahead taking more of the world each year. Now all Latin America will go.

The invasion of Cuba was arranged under Eisenhower's administration and carried out under Kennedy's. It is public knowledge in Washington that the Cuban invasion was planned by the State Department and Central Intelligence Agency who set it up and guided it. The 1400 Cubans were kept ignorant of every move. They were trained mainly in Guatemala, put on ships and started for Cuba with secret sealed orders as to the four landings.

The Cuban patriots did not know where they were going to land until the sealed instructions were opened at sea. When they landed Castro forces were at the exact spots waiting.

The rebels on the way to Cuba had no facilities for notifying Castro. Only the Central Intelligence Agency knew where the Cubans were to land. Apparently when the orders for landing were made out the C.I.A. sent a copy to Castro. This reminds us that on Khrushchev's first trip to U.S., while in the White House, in order to impress him of our efficiency he was handed a C.I.A. report. He glanced at it and handed it back saying "I read these before you do."

After the anti-Communists in East Germany arose in revolt and were slaughtered, it was learned that Communist agents had promoted the revolt so as to bring the anti-Communists from underground to be identified and exterminated. How many Bolshevik agents do we have in C.I.A.? How many in State Department?

It is no secret that Communists have been in the State Department since F.D.R. days. The C.I.A. was to notify the anti-Communist underground in Cuba so they could assist the invasion. They were not notified. Cuban leaders say they were promised by C.I.A. that U.S. air force was to cover their landing.

These Cubans trying to regain their country from Communists were trapped. As the Cubans tried to reach land they were fired upon from the shore and Communist planes sunk two ships of ammunition. Nearly all were killed or captured to be executed later. We have made Castro a popular man in Latin America which will likely now follow him into Communism.

Our Radio Free Europe in 1956 gave the Hungarian people reason to believe they would be supported if they revolted. The revolt was our best chance to knock Communism out, for Poland and East Germany were also ready. Hungarian freedom fighters pleaded for help; Spain started to send troops and weapons but our State Department, under Eisenhower, stopped Spain. Eisenhower now protests against investigations of the C.I.A.

Under Eisenhower our taxpayers gave 400 million dollars for freak projects in Laos. Now Communists are taking Laos, assets and all.

Eisenhower invited Khrushchev here to be honored and displayed at receptions from coast to coast. This mass murderer was allowed nation-wide TV to propagandize into our homes—brotherhood, friendship and co-existence, neutralizing our people and watering down their will to fight for freedom.

In Europe Eisenhower ordered our army to move back and allow the Communists to take Berlin where they had three weeks by themselves to strip factories, grab art and valuables, and haul off to Soviet Union in thousands of trucks the U.S. taxpayers paid for under the eleven billion dollars Lend-Lease. (We were not repaid and never will be).

While this was going on Communist soldiers, like ape-men were herding all German girls and women into the streets, stripping and raping them.

"A natural objective beyond the Ruhr was Berlin. It was practically and psychologically important as the symbol of remaining German power. I decided, however, that it was not the logical or the most desirable objective for the forces of the Western allies."

As a result, today the United States forces need to pass through 110 miles of Communist territory to reach West Berlin. This is a fuse for war. Ike ordered more than a million Russians who escaped from Communism through the German lines to be returned from Germany to Soviet Union to be liquidated. Such is war pushed on us by Zionist Jews, and in charge of a man who was picked and raised over 200 officers who outranked him. It is important to remember a statement by Eisenhower, in a speech in the stadium at Los Angeles during his campaign for President in 1952 stated:

"For many years I have sat at the feet of Bernard Baruch and listened to his words of wisdom."

We have not mentioned any of the contents of the book by Eisenhower's lady chauffeur in Europe, Kay Summersby. The books have been quietly bought and destroyed.

Drew Pearson's column of Jan. 14, 1961 makes disclosures that have not been denied by Eisenhower. According to Pearson, the expenses at Eisenhower's farm for six years beginning 1951 were $508,000 which were paid mainly by three oil men whose companies depended on decisions by Eisenhower while he was President. These men, W. Alton Jones (head of Cities Service), B.G. "Billy" Byars (Texas oil man) and George Allen. Hard working dirt farmers take notice of how farmer Ike runs his farm. Here are a few of the expenses: Show barns $30,000; three smaller barns $22,000; remodeling Ike's main house, $110,000; landscaping $6,000; Salary Gen. Arthur S. Nevins, farm manager at 10,000 a year, $90,000; assistant manager's salary six years $60,000; hired hands $180,000.

Herman Goering's Letter To Churchill

The following letter was written by Herman Goering, German Reichs Marshal the day before he committed suicide in Nuremberg. We publish this for the fourth time in view of its special interest in the face of the present-day crisis.

Nuremberg, Germany October 10, 1946

Mr. Churchill:

You will have the satisfaction to survive me and my comrades in misfortune. I do not hesitate to congratulate you on this personal triumph and the finesse with which you have accomplished it. You have gone to great expense in order to secure this success, for yourself and Great Britain. Should I believe you sufficiently naive as to consider this success anything more than a show, detrimental to the Great German Empire—a performance for the peoples and their Jewish and Bolshevik confederates, which were maneuvered by you into the war—then my statement to you during the last hour of my life would, also in the eyes of posterity, be squandered upon an undeserving one.

My pride as a German and as one of the foremost responsible German leaders forbids me to lose even a single word in a dispute of world-historical importance on the disgraceful lowness of the methods employed by the victors as far as these proceedings concern my own person. However, as it is the obvious and announced intention of their administration of the law to throw the very German people into the abyss of illegality and to rob them once and for all of a future possibility to defend themselves by the removal of the responsible men of the national socialistic state, I have to add a few words to the historic subject of the verdict, premeditated by you and your allies.

I direct these remarks to you, since you are one of the best informed ones regarding the true underlying reasons for this war and on the possibility of avoiding the same; or to end it at least in a manner bearable for the European future; and yet refused your testimony and your oath to your own high court of justice. Therefore I shall not fail, while there is still time, to call you before the tribunal of history and direct my statements to you, because I know that this tribunal shall expose you some day as that man, who, with ambition, intelligence and energy has thrown the fate of the European nations under the heels of foreign world powers.

In you I identify before history the man who had the ability to bring Adolf Hitler and his political accomplishments; the man, who will, however, be unable to raise the shield protectingly against the invasion of Europe by the Asiatics.

It was your ambition to justify the Versailles Treaty regarding Germany. It will prove fatal to you that you succeeded. You personified the hardened obstinacy of your old gentry; and you also personified the gigantic effort of the rejuvenated German power to decide the fate of Europe in the steppes of Asia in order to safeguard the same in the future. Long after my responsibility in the future development of events has found its objective judge, it will be put to your account that the past bloody war has not been the final one which had to be fought on the continent for the very possibility of existence of its nations.

You will have to answer for the fact that the bloody war of yesterday will be followed by a still greater one and that the European nations will not rule at the Volga, but at the Pyrenes mountains. It is my fervent wish that you may at least live to see the day on which the world, and the western nations in particular, will become aware of the bitter truth that it was you and your friend Roosevelt who sold their future to Bolshevism for a cheap personal triumph over nationalistic Germany. This day may come sooner than you like, and you, in spite of your advanced age, will still be vigorous enough to see it dawn bloody red over the British Isle.

I am convinced that it will bring you all those unimaginable terrors which you escaped this time through the good luck of war; or through the abhorrence of the German conduct of war to a complete degeneration of the methods of fighting between peoples of the same race. My knowledge regarding the kind and amount of arms and of the projects from us, which—thanks to your military assistance to the red army—have fallen into their hands, enable me to form this supposition.

There is no doubt that you—according to your habit—soon will write good memoirs and you will write them the better, as there is nobody to hinder you to tell and suppress whatever you like.

You believe it very clever to have submitted this historic truth to the craftiness of a handful of ambitious junior lawyers in order to have it changed into an expedient dialectic treatise, in spite of your awareness as a Briton as well as a statesman, that with such means the problems of existence of peoples could not be solved and judged; neither in the past nor in the future.

I have an only too well grounded opinion of your power and the cunning of your intelligence as to credit you with believing the vulgar propaganda with which you motivated the war against us and with which you had your victory over us glorified in a fantastic show.

I state here with great emphasis as one of the highest military, political and economic leaders of the Great German Empire the following: This war could not be avoided because the politics of Great Britain—under the influence of your person and of your friends of like opinions in all fields—persisted constantly to hinder the life-interests and the most natural development of the German people; and—filled with the senile ambition to uphold the British hegemony—preferred the 2nd world war to an understanding, as we on our side had tried time and again to bring about, beneficial to both of the most prominent nations of Europe.

I declare herewith once more most emphatically that the guilt of the German people in this war—into which they were forced by you—consists solely in trying to end the eternal difficulties to their national existence, which you artfully instigated and continued.

It would be useless to go with you into a dispute over the causes, the conditions of restraint and the motives which led during the course of the war to political and military complications and which your lawyers knew so well to use in a one-sided manner at the cost of the national socialistic regime.

COMMUNIST PLAN FOR WORLD CONQUEST

"First we shall dominate Western Europe, then the masses of Asia. Finally, we shall encircle the United States as a last bastion of Capitalism and like over-ripe fruit it will fall into our hands."

These were the words of the communist leader Lenin.

The devastated European regions of culture and rubbed treasures give still today testimony of the embittered despair with which a great and proud people yesterday, with unparalleled readiness to make sacrifices, fought for its existence. Tomorrow they will testify that alone the overpowering might, led by you in the field, was able to cause the subjection and deprivation of their rights. The day after tomorrow the Russians will bear witness of the betrayal which surrendered Europe to the red Asiatics.

The Germany which you conquered will take revenge on you through its downfall. You have neither produced a better politic nor shown a greater courage than we. You have not won the victory due to better qualities or superiority of your strength and strategy, but merely after 6 years with the predominance of your allies. Do not believe your victory to be all that which you tell the world. You and your land soon will harvest the fruits of your political art. What you as an experienced Cynic would not admit toward us—namely that our fight in the East was an act of urgent self defense, and not alone for Germany but for all Europe; and that the German fighting this war, which you constantly condemned, therefore was justified. This, your ally and friend of today, Stalin, soon will prove to you and to the British Empire.

Then you will experience what it means to fight this enemy and you will learn that necessity knows no law; Also that you can neither fight him successfully with treaties of law nor with the weight of Great Britain and her European dwarfs.

You have stated to the German people that you were primarily concerned with the restoration of their democratic mode of life. But you have said not a single word that you want to restore to them the sensible foundations for living, which have been denied them these past 25 years. Your name stands under all essential documents of this epoch of British want of comprehension and jealousy towards Germany. Your name also will stand under the result with which this epoch of Germany's liquidation has challenged history in lieu of Europe's existence.

My belief in the vitality of my people cannot be shaken. They will be stronger and live longer than you. However, it distresses me to know them defenseless in your power and that they now also belong to the luckless victims, who thanks to your success, do not approach a future of progressive work for the realization of their common aim, set forth by intelligence for the western peoples, but are driven toward the greatest catastrophe in their common history.

I do not wish to argue about outrages, which you—rightly or wrongly—ascribe to us and which neither agree with my nor the German peoples comprehension; neither do I wish to talk about those atrocities which have been committed on your part and on the part of your allies towards millions of Germans; for I know that you have made under this pretend the entire German people the object of a collective outrage of a proportion never known in history. I also know that you would not have acted differently regarding your treatment of Germany without this pretention, because since 1914 you have striven for nothing less than the destruction of the German empire. Thus your historic goal denies you the office of a judge over the avoidable and unavoidable consequences caused by your unremitting intentions and which were welcome to you as subsequent proof for the justification of your actions. Today I regret my and the national-socialistic governments greatest mistake, the fateful error to believe in your discernment as a statesman. I regret to have trusted you with justiciously recognizing the world-political necessity of a peaceful and progressive (prosperous) Germany for the existence of a flourishing England. I regret that our means did not suffice to convince you at the last moment that the liquidation of Germany would also be the beginning of the liquidation of Britain's world power. We began to act—each one according to his own law. In line with the new one, for which this Europe was already too old—you holding on to the old one, for which this Europe is not any more important enough in the world.

I shall know how to approach my end in the absolute conviction as a German National Socialist and considering everything else, to have been a better European than you. I leave the judgement of this with an easy mind to posterity. I hope sincerely that you will belong to this world for a long time to come as fate might grant you—as it has to me—when you decline to leave to posterity also a truth.

Sincerely,
Herman Goering

MUNICH PACT OF 1938 WAS BELATED JUSTICE NOT APPEASEMENT

By Dr. A. J. App

On June 3, 1953, President Eisenhower, referring to the debate about Korean truce, said:

"There's going to be no new Munich, and at the same time there's going to be no risk of general war because modern war would be too horrible to contemplate."

The president's referring to the Munich Pact of Sept. 30, 1938, as an appeasement is another pathetic evidence of how long war-time misrepresentations linger on and continue to muddy the tide towards a just peace.

The Munich Pact, signed by Germany, France, Britain, Italy was not appeasement but belated justice. This pact finally granted the 3,500,000 Sudeten Germans or Old Austrians of Czech-Slovakia the right of self-determination denied them in 1919. Though these Sudetens, more in number than the Irish or the Norwegians or Israeli had urgently appealed to their right of self-determination guaranteed by Wilson's Fourteen Points, they were torn from Austria, were rudely denied to join either Weimar Republic or Austria, and were at bayonet point incorporated into Czechoslovakia.

The Munich Pact, nineteen years later, finally granted the Sudetens what they had implored vainly from the forsworn Allies on the basis of the Fourteen Points in 1919! The Munich Pact was not wrong. What was pitiful was that its belated justice was achieved only upon the belligerent insistence of Hitler instead of having been generously granted to the Sudeten people at the time of the unarmed Weimar and Austrian Republics!

Rather than keep on condemning the Munich Pact, all true Americans ought to pray to God never to allow the Western governments ever again to be so wrong-headed and so short-sighted as not to grant peoples their self-determination immediately and voluntarily.

Regarding the slanderous condemnation of the Munich Pact, a slander promoted by the communists and the Morgenthauists and carelessly accepted by others, Freda Utey, author of The High Cost of Vengeance, of which the German edition sold over

Dwight D. Eisenhower

50,000 copies, wrote in Human Events ("Appeasement a la Mode," June 24, 1953):

"Those who compare Panmunjon to Munich are also wrong. All that the much-abused Neville Chamberlain did was to agree to the self-determination of the people of the Sudetenland, which was a part of Czechoslovakia inhabited by Germans, which had formed part of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, and which would never have been awarded to the Czechs if Wilson's Fourteen Points had been adhered to.

But at Panmunjon we have agreed to award to the aggressors a part of Korea inhabited exclusively by Koreans. What we are witnessing today can be more aptly compared to the secret Teheran and Yalta agreements which delivered the Poles to Russia and prepared the way for the Communist conquest of China, as well as all Western Europe."

The Munich Pact did not lead to war. It prevented war in 1938. War broke out in 1939 over Danzig, and precisely because the principle of belated justice of the Munich Pact was not also applied to the Danzigers! This third of a million people had also been deprived of their right of self-determination by the Versailles Treaty. Their wrong kept festering! Wrongs like that, like the even more monstrous Yalta and Potsdam wrongs of East Prussia, Silesia, Sudetenland, North Korea keep festering. They do not stop festering until the right of self-determination is honestly and fully applied. Nor do they fester quietly forever. By and by, unless righted voluntarily by the oppressors, they break out into war. The wrong done in 1919 to the Sudetens was righted short of war by the Munich Pact after nineteen years in the last most dangerous moment. The wrong to the Danzigers in 1919 festered for twenty years—and then developed into World War II!

How long will the Western Allies allow the wrong to the South Tyrolese to fester? How long will the victors allow the unexampled wrongs to the German Expellees to fester? However long, the one lesson of history is final: these wrongs will either be corrected voluntarily by those who committed them—in the nick of time—or someone will rise to try to correct them by force. RIGHTED THEY MUST BE!

The world can take its choice. But you and I, when anyone wants to attack the Munich Pact, should answer: "You mean the Yalta Pact, do you not?"

SOVIET OCCUPYING FORCES IN ESTONIA

by Colonel Richard Maasing

Republished from Newsletter from Behind the Iron Curtain

The Soviet standing army and active military forces include at present 18 military districts, two air-defense districts (Moscow and Baku), and three army groups — the Northern army group, in Poland; the Central army group, in East Germany; and the Southern army group, in Hungary.

These army groups are kept constantly in fighting trim, just as they were when the insurrection in Berlin and the revolt in Hungary were suppressed.

The Soviet navy has four fleets — of the North Sea, the Baltic Sea, the Black Sea and the Pacific; two auxiliary fleets, of the Caspian Sea and of the Don; and one naval defense district, Leningrad.

Occupied Estonia is included in the Baltic military district, which is kept mobilized up to 50 per cent even in peace time. It comprises the Soviet republics of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania as well as the Kaliningrad oblast (East Prussia).

The general staff and headquarters of the Baltic military district are in Riga. The present chief is Army-General Pavel Batov. He is seconded by a council of war made up of the first secretaries of the central committees of the Communist parties in Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania and the Kaliningrad oblast. In mobilization, the chief of the Baltic military district, as the commander of a border-land military district, would have power of an absolute ruler in every domain in the Baltic states. The councils of ministers of the Baltic states would then become organs to carry out the orders of the chief, who would also have authority to command the entire population of the Baltic area, regardless of sex or age, to do any kind of work.

The land-forces stationed in the Baltic military district now include approximately 200,000 men, of whom some 46,000 are in Estonia.

The frontier defense and KGB (State Security Committee) forces stationed in occupied Estonia are commanded by Major General J. Karpov. He also is chairman of the KGB of the Council of Ministers of the Estonian Soviet Republic. Although he thus has the rights of a minister in the government of the Estonian Soviet Republic, he is subject to the chief of the frontier defense and KGB forces in the Baltic area, at present Lieutenant General A. Nikiforov, whose staff is situated in Riga. The total enrollment of the frontier defense and KGB troops in Estonia is 10,000.

The MVD (Ministry of the Interior) forces have one regiment and some single companies, a total of 2,000 men, stationed in Estonia. They are subject to the vice minister of the Interior of the Soviet Union, Major General V. Shevchenko.

In summary, the land forces of various kinds now stationed in Estonia total about 58,000 men. They are 100 per cent motorized and provided with modern arms designed and constructed since the second World War.

The naval bases of the Baltic Fleet are situated on the coasts of Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania and the Kaliningrad (formerly Königsberg), commanded by Vice-Admiral A. Oryol whose political adviser is Rear Admiral J. Potshupaylo. The council of war of the Baltic Fleet includes among its members the secretaries of the central committees of the Communist parties of the Baltic republics.

The Baltic Fleet consists of the following units: 10 cruisers, 60 cruiser-minelayers and watchships (frigates), 160 submarines, 200 fast torpedo-boats and anti-submarine destroyers, and 2,000 fighter planes, as well as a large number of auxiliary vessels and landing craft.

LETS FACE THE FACTS

Eisenhower also accepted thousands of dollars of expensive gifts from over the world such as pedigreed stock and items for the house.

Doubleday paid Ike $635,000 for his book; the revenue department ruled this taxfree. He now receives $25,000 pension with $50,000 taxfree expenses. He is worth over a million dollars.

F.D.R. who was placed in Washington by Zionist Jews to crush Germany so the Bolsheviks in Soviet Union could be free to spread over the world, then turned over millions of Christians to Communist slavery. Truman followed saying the charge of Communism was a red herring; then comes Eisenhower who was promised he would be endorsed by both parties, and a group headed by Sherman Adams would run the government for Ike. Goldfine messed this up.

Kennedy knew he could not be elected without the organized pressure groups so he convinced them he was their man. These interlocked pressure groups have been controlling elections, national and state. That is why the administration will go through the motions of opposing Communism in Asia, but does not dare oppose Communists in Washington.

These groups can destroy an officeholder if he refuses to carry out their plans. These interlocked groups are American Jewish Committee, Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, American Jewish Congress, Americans for Democratic Action, Council on Foreign Relations, Walter Reuther's machine, David Dubinsky's machine, many Communist fronts and several Foundations.

We crushed Germany, the only force that could stabilize Europe and hold Communism back. We built the Soviet Union Frankenstein. We now tremble with fear flaring not to move to stop the Communist steamroller.

Our President has set up an administration of marxists, and several million undesirable Communist refugees have come here and oppose our defending our freedom.

We have placed ourselves in a position where we must spend billions each year for defense against godless gangsters we built up; billions more in space competition against a former fourth place nation we nourished; billions more for foreign aid for greedy countries to prevent them from going Communist.

These billions to be placed on our citizens tax bills.

Kennedy has now removed bans on the entry of thousands of mail bags of Communist propaganda literature.

LET'S PRAY AND FIGHT TO REGAIN OUR COUNTRY.

A COMMITTEE HEADED BY

Kenneth Goff

of Englewood, Colorado

Presenting Congress with petitions carrying over one million signatures outlawing of the Communist Party.

Left to right: Dr. Bill Beene of the St. Louis Baptist Temple, St. Louis, Missouri; Dr. Kenneth Goff, Soldiers of the Cross Tabernacle, Denver, Col.; Dr. Paul Rader, River Lake Gospel Tabernacle, Minneapolis, Minnesota; —present to Congressman Francis Walters, Chairman of the Un-American Activities Committee and Congressman H. Allen Smith, petitions bearing a million signatures calling for the outlawing of the Communist Party.

Reverend Kenneth Goff of Englewood, Colorado, headed a committee to Washington, D.C. which presented to the Honorable Allen Smith, Congressman from California, and the Honorable Francis Walters, Pennsylvania, Chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, petitions, bearing over a million signatures calling for the outlawing of the Communist Party, and supporting Mr. Smith's bill—No. HR 2302, which makes it a penalty, punishable by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) or imprisonment of not more than ten years, or both; for membership in the Communist Party or its successors.

A special committee formed of ministers and laymen fighting Communism in America, known as the United Anti-Communist Leagues in America, held a two-day conference in the Queen Elizabeth Room of the Hotel Raleigh, in Washington, D.C., on April 11th and 12th, in conjunction with their petitioning of Congress.

The Committee found many Congressmen really acceptable to their petitions, and already action is being taken to strengthen legislation which would curtail Communist activity in the United States.

The Committee issued the following statement concerning its desires for the outlawing of the Communist Party in its request to Congress:

"Believing (that the continued existence in our nation of an admitted 'fifth column' organization, pledged to support the revolutionary program of Soviet Russia rather than the Constitution of the United States of America, is inimical to the continued welfare and security of the United States of America), do herewith call upon the Congress of the United States, to take whatever acts are necessary to make membership in the Communist Party a crime against the government of the United States, and further, to require that all persons teaching or spreading Communist propaganda immediately register as agents of a foreign government."

The Baltic Fleet has four main bases: Baltisk (formerly Pillau), Tallinn, Liepaja (Libau) and Riga as well as a large number of so-called operative bases. The main naval base in Tallin also commands the operative base Paldiski. The commander of the Tallinn naval base is Vice-Admiral G. Abashvili, whose political adviser is Rear Admiral E. Slivin. Some 20,000 marines are stationed at the naval base of Tallinn.

The total force of the Soviet occupying troops on Estonian soil is about 86,000 men — one soldier for every 13 civilians and one for every 10 inhabitants of Estonian nationality.

The armed forces of independent Estonia amounted in peace time to 14,000 men. These forces constituted no menace to any neighbor. They were open to the observation of all the neighbors.

Today the extent and disposition of the armed forces in Estonia are treated as high state secrets. The Estonian population does not know and is not allowed to know anything about it — not even where the troops are stationed or what they are doing.

BLACKS TO RULE WHITES

The Negro Ralph Bunche stated: "Birmingham Alabama, February 14, 1959 —Nobel Prizewinner Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, said yesterday White supremacy is 'rapidly declining' and warned that the coloured races are determined to end racial prejudice and discrimination. 'The world of 1959 is not by any means a Whiteman's world. Today it is overwhelmingly a non-White world and one in which the power and authority of White men is rapidly declining. New voices of yellow, brown and black men command attention in the councils of the world.'"

There is one thing you can say for the men in charge of our government. They are running it like nobody's business.
